Farmer Commits Suicide.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winston-Salem, N. C., July 17,Thomas Wright, a farmer about forty years of age, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a pistol at his home near Cana, in Davie County, to-day. He had gone into a back room of his house and locked the door, when members of his family heard the report of a revolver. Finding the door locked, they went to a window and looked in and saw him lying on the stoor dead. No cause is known for the suicide.

Woman's College, Richmond, Va.

On account of its location in cultured and historic Richmond, the Weman's College affords unsurpassed advantages for the higher education of young ladies. It would require the expenditure of millions of dollars to duplicate these advantages elsewhere outside such a city. Large and able faculties in all departments. Usual college degrees. Special advantages in Instrumental and Vocal Music. Art and Elocution. Students have the privilege of hearing many leading artists and lecturers of this country and Europe who appear in Richmond during the session. Students have access to the largest and most valuable library in the South, and are within a few minutes' walk of the leading churches of all denominations.

Remarkable Health Record. Terms Moderate. Write for Catalogue.
